☐ I understand by completing the admissions cancellation process will cancel any financial aid application and all financial aid offers including scholarships, grants and other forms of aid. Should I wish to attend the University of Arizona in the future, I will be required to submit a new application, application processing fee and official transcripts. My current financial aid offer that will be canceled as a result of this admissions cancellation will not be re-instated if I apply in the future.

☐ I understand that in order to be eligible for a refund of the Enrollment Fee, students who wish to cancel must do so by the required cancellation date (May 15th - Freshman/June 15th - Transfer/ July 1st - International) or before attending a New Student Orientation or Transfer Welcome, whichever date is earlier.

☐ I understand that my New Student Orientation/Transfer Orientation will be canceled provided that I am completing the admission cancellation process at least 7 business days prior to my scheduled session. If admission cancellation is being done with less than 7 business days remaining before my program, I should contact the Office of Orientation at orientation@arizona.edu regarding cancellation and New Student Orientation/Transfer Welcome fees.

Any cancellation received after attending a New Student Orientation/Transfer Orientation is non-refundable and therefore I remain responsible for the fees incurred.

☐ I understand that by completing the admission cancellation process my classes and Housing will be canceled and that if I decide to return to the University of Arizona in the future, the classes and Housing I was registered for may no longer be available to me.
